ABOUT CELTA

The Certificate in English Language Teaching to Adults (CELTA) is an introductory course for candidates with little or no previous experience of teaching languages, or for teachers with no formal qualifications. It is the most widely recognised qualification for those wishing to follow a career in TEFL/TESOL and provides a solid foundation on which a teacher can build. The CELTA can be taken part-time over 12 weeks, or in one of our full-time 4-week summer courses.

CONTENT

The CELTA comprises:

- 120 hours for input of methodology, teaching practice & feedback, guided preparation, tutorials, assignments, language research, support.
- 6 hours supervised teaching practice.
- 6 hours directed observation of lessons taught by experienced ELT trainers.

The course is extremely work-intensive, and trainees are required to attend 100% of the course, and to teach classes of 'real students' at different levels.

CELTA 2025

The teaching practice and observation tasks constitute a major part of the course. Both these elements will be prepared and discussed in tutorial groups, each comprising 4-6 candidates. All trainees will observe the other participants in their group teaching.

ASSESSMENT AND CERTIFICATION

- There is no written examination. Assessment is continuous. Teaching skills are of the greatest importance, but all aspects of performance and work done on the course are taken into consideration, including the candidate's written work, punctuality, professionalism, and potential as a member of staff in an EFL context.
- Candidates are informed of their progress during the course by written commentary on their teaching practice and by tutorial.
- Candidates who successfully complete the course are awarded the Cambridge English Certificate in Teaching to Adults. Certificates are awarded at A, B, or Pass grades. In addition, each trainee will receive a personal report on his/her teaching skills from BLTC.

There are 2 components of assessment:
